Report of the Superintendent of Schools

To the Board of Education and Citizens of the town:

During the past year an earnest endeavor has been made to place the schools on a higher plane. A study has been made of the prevailing conditions and an attempt has been put forth to correct the evils that have crept into our school system. But it has been a very difficult task to carry on satisfactory schools when so many factors enter in to retard possible progress.

Our most capable State Superintendent has always been most willing to assist local Superintendents with their problems,—but it must be borne in mind that there are no less than five other factors that must be considered, before progress can be made. A Superintendent alone can accomplish but little if these five other factors or forces do not co-operate. With such co-operation nothing but successful schools can result. We therefore should have:—

First, a School Board always willing to give the Superintendent a hearing and back him up in all that is undertaken. The School Board should be made up from those who are enthusiastic about advancement of our schools. Such a School Board we have had during the past year.

Second, our teachers must be efficient. They must now hold State Certificates of elementary grade. But this is not enough. They must be naturally suited to the work, must be good scholars, and should have some previous teaching experience. In brief, they should be well versed in the subjects they are required to teach; in the principles of psychology and also should have studied the relationship of subject-matter to mind.

Our corps of teachers for past year have been in earnest and have all done their best, with somewhat encouraging results.

The third element is that of the influence of the parents upon the schools. Here both the teacher and the parent must realize that a close relationship exists and that many problems of school discipline and management must be worked out together.

As a corollary of this relationship is the good that comes from the determination on the part of the scholars to do good work. This, the fourth factor, is brought about by the cooperation of parent and teacher.

But all of the above four forces can avail but little, unless the citizens do their part. I do not mention this in an antagonistic spirit, nor do I forget to see the good work that has been done in the past. But if we are to give our boys and girls a fair chance in competition with the boys and girls of other towns, we must, at least to a certain extent, keep up with the times. We must not censure the teacher or the school organization if results are not satisfactory, if we are not paying the market price for good teachers, and are not supplying the equipment, in the way of school libraries, maps, charts, globes, books, etc. I therefore urge that your appropriation for all school purposes be greater than heretofore, that your school board may have an opportunity to provide the necessary good teachers and equipments.

Just a word about the system of local superintendency. For a long time this was the best arrangement that could be had, but no small town can afford to pay anyone to devote his entire time to the work. This the State has recognized and another system is available,—i. e., the employing of a Union Superintendent. By this arrangement the State gives aid and makes it possible for several towns to unite and employ a Union Superintendent, who devotes all his time to the schools.

In this connection I want to say that the towns that do not take up with the Union Superintendency plan are penalized in a way,—for you must remember that before the common school fund is distributed among the towns, the money for Union Superintendents is first deducted. Therefore a town not of a school union is virtually assisting the towns so operating. For this reason I urge your joining some school union.

Our school buildings in general are in fair condition, but this does not mean that our appropriation for repairs should not be liberal,—for there is need of considerable minor repairs.

To speak of the need of co-operation of parents, scholars and teachers and not speak of the results of such work, during the past year would be most unfair. Below is a dollar-and-cents account of the result of co-operative effort of past year in the respective schools:

North Lovell.....	$45 50
Lovell Village.....	31 25
Slab City.....	19 50
West Lovell.....	19 00
Lovell Center.....	4 50

The total of the above, i. e., $119.75, has been put into the respective schools in the way of book cases, clock, water coolers, maps, etc. Let the good work go on.

In the matter of teachers' desks and chairs much should be done, for there are few, if any, that are adequate. Extra chairs should be provided in order that visitors may not be compelled to stand.

Space forbids the enumeration of all the things needed in the schools, however, a plan should be adopted by the town to furnish all schools with the same good equipment.

It will take time to supply all the needs but much can be done each year, if a definite plan is inaugurated.

The somewhat large balance in the common school account will be much smaller when fuel and other outstanding bills are paid.

Recommended appropriations are as follows:

Town appropriation for schools.....	$1,000 00
Text books and appliances.....	200 00
Repairs account	100 00
Secondary schools	125 00

If the above appropriation of $1,000 seems large, kindly remember that our local tax for common schools is very low as compared with other towns. In other words, we would raise $1,395.10 if we taxed ourselves by the average tax rate for the State.

Men's Good Wear Clothes

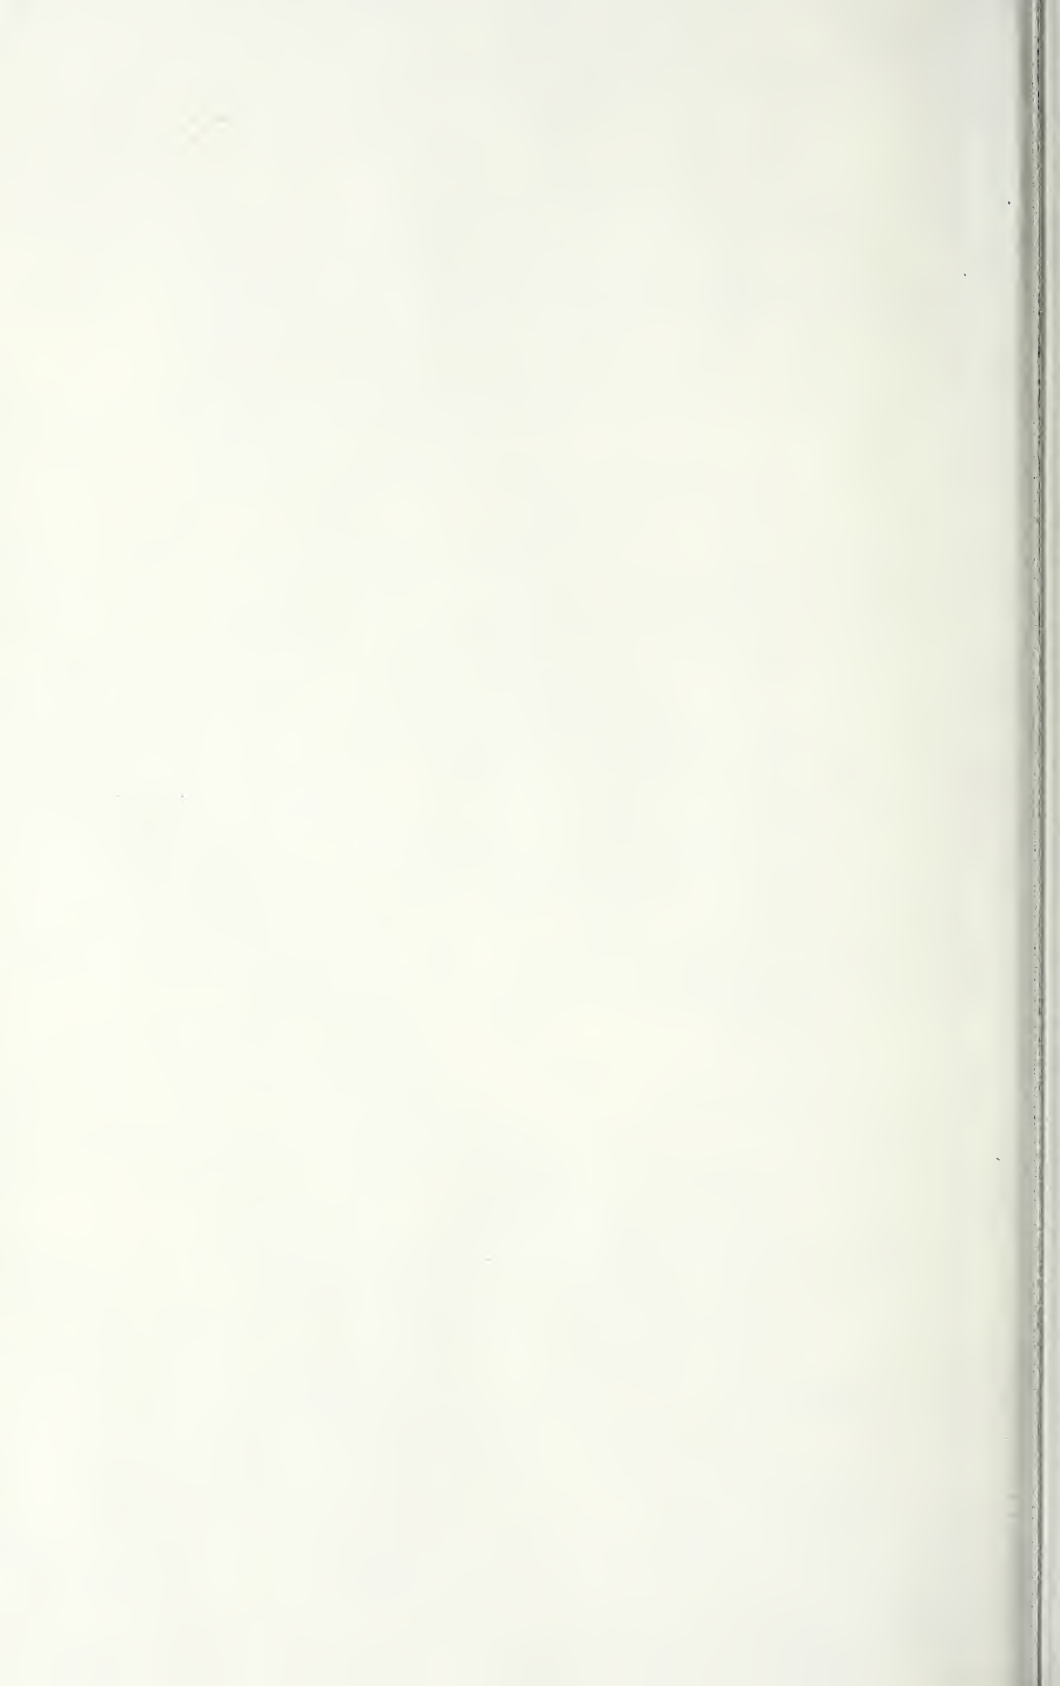

ONE of the most important investments you have to make is in the matter of clothes. You ought to consider carefully where you can get the biggest returns. We're ready to show you how and why you should buy here. We make a careful study of the clothes question. We will not put in stock any garment unless it has service. We clean up our stock by sales twice each year so that all goods are new and up to date. We have but one price. Having but one price enables us to make you a low price or in other words enables us to give you the best possible value. We will gladly refund the money for every unsatisfactory purchase.
